

So Southeast (SoSE) Frequently Asked Questions

Who and What is SoSE?	SoSE is a collaborative of community members working to promote the historical and cultural significance of Black Southeast Raleigh and using that knowledge to imagine and re-imagine a future through educational and cultural initiatives. SoSE was established in November 2020 and supported by the Wake Community-University Partnership (NC State) and Social and Economic Vitality (Wake County)
	SoSE embodies the principle of Sankofa – a West African Adinkra symbol that emphasizes the importance of looking back as a means of going forward. Through their work, SoSE members seek to prevent the erasure of Black SE Raleigh community’s heritage and culture through increased awareness and advocacy.
Who is our Audience? 	Anyone seeking to work in, around, or through SE Raleigh or with area residents. The work of SoSE is to ensure remembrance, acknowledgement, and preservation of the community’s rich history. More specifically, the intended audience includes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Current SE Raleigh residents ● Future SE Raleigh residents ● Elected officials and individuals seeking political office ● Developers and new business owners in the SE Raleigh area ● Faculty, students, and staff at schools, universities and colleges across the area who want to work in or with people and communities in SE Raleigh.
What do we imagine as the result of SoSE’s efforts in 5 years?	Members of SoSE seek to witness an increase in community pride in addition to positive changes addressing community needs as a result of increased awareness of and advocacy for SE Raleigh’s heritage and culture. In the next five years, SoSE members envision a SE Raleigh with increased access to affordable housing; expansion of capacity for growth among small businesses, entrepreneurs, and nonprofits; and as a space where Black Raleigh residents want to return to, and can afford to return, to live, learn, work, worship and play. .
